

Grand Jury Recommends Full-Time DA, Outlaws Pin Balls

Banning of pin ball machines, licensing and regulating of card rooms and the district attorney devoting full time to his job were among the major recommendations made by the Contra Costa Grand Jury in its annual report to Judge Hugh Donovan.

In other recommendations the grand jury stated that the facilities for expansion of the Rehabilitation Center suitable for development as a prison farm be accomplished as soon as possible; that a policy be established and implemented to develop an enlarged prisoner work program at the Adult Rehabilitation Center are that all county communications activities be consolidated with dispatching activities located in the sheriff's office.

THE HOSPITALS, clinics and Sanitation Committee of the grand jury included in its report that the board and administrators of the hospitals carefully study the grand jury auditors report and institute the recommendations of the auditor wherever feasible.

Training courses should be given to ambulance drivers at the earliest possible date and a procedure manual for the county should be put into use, states the report.

Adequate identification of and responsibility for equipment and similar affects should be established, the report continues.

The committee further recommends that an adequate dog control law be considered, that county food sanitation ordinances be passed and put in effect and that compliance with the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District's ruling of "no burning" and making all dumps of the fill and cover type should be effected.

Rotation plans for deputy coroners be evaluated by the board of supervisors and the feasibility of a salary in lieu of fees for individual cases for the coroner were also recommended by the grand jurors.

The Public Buildings and County Properties Committee recommended that a building program of providing for an adequate administration and terminal building be pursued to the fullest extent in accordance with the master plan as accepted by the supervisors at Buchanan Field.

THE COMMITTEE noted that the Hall of Records, Administration Building and Court House, Martinez, were in good shape.

Facilities at the Prison Farm at Marsh Creek are in fair to poor condition, according to the report.

A long range master plan for the development of county library facilities and distribution centers was strongly recommended by the Education Committee of the Grand Jury.

"We recommend that in order to further compensate for inequities in library service to the unincorporated areas that additional bookmobile units be acquired," writes the committee.

In other recommendations the committee states:

1. "We recommend that the Board of Supervisors approve, as an economy measure, in the long run, the request of the County Board of Education for an appropriation of funds for a comprehensive survey of the need for school sites throughout the several school districts of Contra Costa County with precise recommendations of the areas needed for school sites which sites could be incorporated into the General Master Plan.

2. "We recommend that consideration be given to establishing in the County School Superintendent's Office, a section devoted to coordinating and assisting the several school districts of the county in their construction plans with the added possibility of the County's hiring an architect to supervise and compare all building costs.

3. "We recommend that the County Clerk and the County School Superintendent cooperate to work out a sensible, county-wide procedure to cover the sending out of sample ballots and notifications of polling places in school elections."

Recommendations of the Law Enforcement Committee include:

"PIN BALL MACHINES: It is recommended that pin ball machines be banned from the unincorporated areas of the county. They have already been banned in most of the incorporated areas and this should be extended to the unincorporated areas. Adequate enforcement of present laws prohibiting their use as gambling devices does not appear to be feasible with the present staff of the Sheriff's office. The only practical way of preventing illegal play and pay-offs is to ban them completely.

"CARD ROOMS: It is recommended that an ordinance be passed licensing and regulating the operation of public card rooms or poker parlors. Of particular importance would be the regulation of hours and provision for easy inspection by the Sheriff's department to prevent their use of illegal gambling.

"The above recommendations with respect to pin ball machines and card rooms were presented to the Board of Supervisors in February. So far no action on these matters has been taken.

"District Attorney's Office: In connection with its study of the District Attorney's office, the committee heard expressions of concern from a great many quarters with respect to the policy of the District Attorney of maintaining a private law practice and of permitting his deputies to have private law practices. A variety of criticisms of this practice were voiced, including the following:

"1. Possibility of questionable legal solicitation: Citizens who seek the District Attorney's assistance may wind up as clients of a deputy. When a case does not come within the County's jurisdiction, it is possible for the deputy to solicit the case for his private practice.

"2. Possible conflicts of interest: In their private practices, the District Attorney and his deputies become associated with many people. Some of these may violate the law. When this occurs there may be a tendency to minimize the charges; perhaps accepting a plea to a lesser offense. In civil cases involving the County and a former client, there may be some tendency to be sympathetic. Even the most scrupulously honest individual finds it difficult to be completely objective in such situations. Assignment of a different deputy to handle such cases is not a satisfactory solution to the problem, because frequently the County would lose the services of the man best qualified by training and experience to handle the case. The solution of our Federal Government to this problem has been to prohibit the employee associations which might lead to conflict of interest."

Complete coverage of the grand jury report will appear in the next issue of The Sun.

Grounded Wire Scorches Lucky Lineman's Pants

A grounded hot wire ignited grass in Orinda Wednesday morning and brushed against a Pacific Gas and Electric Company apprentice lineman, whose trousers were scorched but who apparently experienced no other damage.

"He was very lucky he wasn't electrocuted," Orinda Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt commented yesterday.

The fortunate lineman was Norman L. Harmon, 224, of Live Oak, Calif., according to the PG&E news bureau in San Francisco.

THE PG&E crew, under Foreman C. F. Bryant, was testing the circuits in the overhead high-power lines along the west side of Orinda Highway, just back of DeLaveaga's Chevron Station at 11 Orinda Highway, when the incident occurred at about 9 a.m., the chief reported.

The wire brushed against Harmon, who was on a pole. According to Chief Wyatt, the lineman did not require first aid.

A patch of grass about 100 feet square was burned, the chief said. The fire was promptly extinguished by the Orinda Fire Department.

The PG&E news bureau reported that apparently when Harmon was grounding a wire, the grounding cable burned, and a drop of molten metal from the cable fell to the grass below, igniting it.

There was no line break or interruption of service, the company said.

ANOTHER Orinda grass fire occurred last Saturday morning at 21 Van Ripper Lane when, according to the chief, some people were doing open burning without permission and the fire got out of control.

About three acres were burned before the fire was put out an hour and a half later by three pieces of equipment from the Orinda Fire Department and three pieces of equipment from the East Bay Municipal Utility District.

Eight firemen battled the blaze. The EBMUD jeeps came into action when the fire spread of utility district property.

CHIEF WYATT stressed yesterday that all open burning has been canceled until next fall.

"Only burning in approved incinerators is now allowed—and the person must have a new permit from the Orinda Fire Department, good from June, 1957, to June, 1958," the chief said.

"In addition, the person must call the fire department before each incinerator burning, which must be only between sunrise and 11 a.m."

"In order of issue a permit, the fire department must inspect the incinerator on the premises."

Selection of Dean Allen as appraiser of the Orinda Community Center land owned by the Orinda Association has been agreed upon by association and Orinda Community Church representatives, the Orinda Association directors were informed Monday night.

Meeting in regular session at Orinda School, the association board was told that the selection of Dean, whose office is at 341 17th Street, Oakland, is an exploratory step toward possible sale of association property to the church.

AGREEMENT on Allen as appraiser followed conferences by Bob Walpole and Marvin Baker, representing the association, with Kirk Miles and Roy Clark of the church.

Walpole and Baker had been appointed by Association President W. E. Estes as a committee of two to help select an appraiser mutually satisfactory to the association and the church, for evaluation of the land.

The association board and its planning committee recently agreed that consideration of sale of association land—"with separate consideration for each of the three parcels"—is desirable "if suitable other property available for purchase by the association can be found."

THE BOARD and planning committee have gone on to state: "Inasmuch as the Pine Grove area is eminently well suited for community purposes, this site should be considered for possible purchase."

Pacific Intermountain Express Company has offered to sell its 10½-acre parcel at the Pine Grove to the association.

Bids for the construction of the Orinda Village Bypass will be opened July 23, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors ordered in Martinez Tuesday.

The project is a part of Bond Project "B" of the $10,250,000 county road bond issue, approved by the voters in 1952.

The proposed construction will provide a four-lane highway from the west side of Tunnel Road (Mt. Diablo Boulevard) to Ardilla Road, replacing the existing two-lane Orinda Highway.

CONNECTIONS will be made to existing local roads and streets to provide access to the local business district and residential areas.

Future development of the area is taken care of in the Bypass design, Mel Nielsen pointed out.

Of particular interest is the large amount of drainage work to be done as part of the project.

San Pablo Creek is to be realigned in several locations and will have a concrete lining installed from a point 300 feet east of Santa Maria Way to the present bridge near El Toyonal.

THE PROJECT has been designed to provide a four-lane facility, with provision for future turn lanes, signals and lighting to be added as warranted by traffic build-up.

Work is expected to begin early this fall, Nielsen said. Construction time is estimated to be about one year and will be dependent upon utility relocation work and weather conditions.

Estimated construction cost, including connections, is $780,000.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors approved expenditure of way for 12 highway improvement projects in the county.

The action was taken Tuesday in Martinez. Included in the projects are Newell Avenue in Walnut Creek, $10,000; Willow Pass Extension, Concord, $3800; Linda Drive, Pleasant Hill, $4,000 and the Roche Drive Extension Pleasant Hill, $5000.

IN OTHER business the supervisors authorized a 4.7 per cent pay increase for all employees of the county. The board will decide within a month's time whether recommendations of the Civil Service Commission to grant 9.4 per cent for 15 per cent of the employees would be granted.

The board received permission to install a civil defense attack warning siren on the Mokelumne aqueduct west of Happy Valley Road in Lafayette and set a load limit of five tons on the Glenisde Road Bridge in Lafayette.

MORAGA ROAD, south of Moraga Boulevard, Lafayette, is now a two hour parking limit zone, according to the board's decree.

A proposal that Contra Costa County prohibit the sale of fresh meat in markets between 6 p.m. and 9 a.m. and all day Sunday and holidays was rejected by the supervisors.

The board tabled the "model ordinance" submitted by the United Meat Industry of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, Inc.

The board expressed the belief that the county should not regulate hours of work in a private industry where public health and safety factors are not involved.

Operators of independent markets opposed the proposed ordinance on grounds that it would eliminate some of their most profitable hours in the evenings and on weekends.

Traffic control signals will be improved on Willow Pass Road at its intersection with Southern Pacific Railroad tracks with $9100 authorized by the supervisors.

Under way this week, in a "cleanup drive" for some 300 signatures, was the windup of the Orinda incorporation election petitions campaign.

Ernest I. Spiegel, general chairman of the Orinda Incorporation Committee of the Orinda Association, explained that the intensive one-week campaign was being pushed so that petitions could be filed with the county clerk's office by today.

Under the direction of Herb Waterman, petitions subcommittee chairman, Mrs. Robert Bowles has been in charge of the drive south of Mt. Diablo Boulevard and Mrs. Millard Simon has been in charge of it north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

WORKING with them, a half-dozen volunteers have been going from door to door this past week.

At the start of the week-long effort, Spiegel stated that approximately 3000 signatures had been obtained up till then but that they had not been tabulated as to what they meant in assessed valuation.

Petitions asking the County Board of Supervisors to schedule an election by Orindans on whether Orinda should incorporate as a city must, in order to be valid, bear signatures of at least 25 per cent of the property owners in the area proposed for incorporation, representing at least 25 per cent of the assessed valuation of the land, unimproved.

"WE BELIEVE we're very close to the line," Spiegel said, as the windup drive got under way, "but to make sure we're going to seek another 10 per cent in signatures."

Reasons for the goal of filing the petitions by today, Spiegel explained, is so that all the signatures turned in will be considered as of the current assessment roll.

In order for the city of Orinda to be on the 1958-59 fiscal year tax rolls, it must be established by next February 1.

Hosts Bridge Group

Mrs. M. G. Parkash entertained the three table duplicate bridge group of which she is a "charter member" at luncheon June 17 at her home on Lost Valley Drive, Orinda.

R. F. Macdonald Last Rites Held

A Requiem Mass was offered last Saturday morning at Santa Maria Catholic Church, Orinda, for Russell F. Macdonald, 60, brother of Ambrose Macdonald of Orinda.

Russell Macdonald, who died June 13 in New York City, was a nephew of Augustine S. Macdonald, credited with founding the city of Richmond. A native of Oakland, Russell Macdonald was a former vice-president of the American Trust Company, San Francisco, and was associated with a New York bond firm at the time of his death.

In addition to Ambrose Macdonald, survivors include two daughters and three grandchildren. The Rosary was recited last Friday night at the Albert Brown Mortuary, Oakland. Private interment followed at St. Mary's Cemetery, Oakland.

Cunningham Pleads Not Guilty to Jury Charge

Ralph Cunningham, county recorder, entered a not guilty plea in superior court this week in answer to a bill of accusation filed by the Contra Costa Grand Jury.

Cunningham was first accused by the grand jury in late May. At that time he had 10 days in which to answer the charges but a delay was granted.

The charges are not criminal indictments.

THE VERDICT of the court could ask for his removal from office.

No action was requested by the grand jury against Jack B. Haule, intermediate clerk who resigned from the county recorder's office April 1 for health reasons, and James Todesco, senior clerk who had admitted kicking back $12 a month to Haule.

Haule had been charged of pocketing county funds which were received for payment of duplicate birth certificates.

Cunningham stated that the funds had been returned and the grand jury agreed they were petty sums and restitution had been made.

THE BILL of accusation differs from a criminal indictment inasmuch as a guilty verdict in superior court does not involve prison or fine, but at maximum, removal from office.

Phil Bancroft, grand jury foreman, noted there was insufficient evidence against Haule and Todesco to bring indictments against them.

Charges against Cunningham state that "Cunningham in appointing Todesco senior clerk in April, 1955, exacted for Todesco as a condition of this appointment an agreement that Todesco would pay $12 a month to Haule."

IN A SECOND accusation presented by the grand jury, Cunningham is charged with "absenting himself from his office for long periods of time, failure to appear at his office on many days without leave or proper reason for so doing, and has neglected and failed to devote his personal care and attention administering the work of his office."

The bill of accusation brought to a close hearings by the grand jury which have been underway since April 18 when shortages were first brought to light in the Records office.

Bancroft indicated that the decision of the grand jury was made with "considerable reluctance against a man who has worked for the county for 30 years."

"Most of that time he has done a good job," stated Bancroft.

Cunningham was first appointed as a deputy recorder in 1927 and elected recorder in 1934. He was opposed for reelection in 1954 and won.

The Grand Jury has heard testimony of Howard McNamer, the county auditor; Hoyt Hay, the assistant county recorder; Mrs. Cunningham, who is a clerk in the office and from Glenn Whalen, the grand jury auditor.

Polio Clinics To Close Sat.

This week brings to a close the Polio Clinics held every Thursday evening and Saturday morning at the Health Department Office in Pleasant Hill since February.

In bringing to a close these special polio clinics, which have been part of a statewide campaign to reduce the incidence of polio, appreciation goes to hundreds of volunteers.

During the past few weeks the following volunteers have given of their time in this area: Mesdames Eileen Oswald, Madeline Barton, Cora Lee Smart, Mary Revak, Helen McMillin, Elizabeth Meinsma, Mrs. Glen Kent, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. B. Rich, Mrs. Eleanor Wallace, Messrs. George W. Premo and Anthony Mazar.

In closing the public health polio clinics Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer said, "Full protection against paralytic polio will be obtained unless the full series of three inoculations is completed." He urged all those receiving less than the required number to complete the series as soon as possible.

The last special polio clinic in this area will be tomorrow morning from 9 to noon at the Health Department office, 2341 North

Governor Signs $37 Million Aid Bill For Schools

Assembly Bill 3045 which will provide $37,000,000 in additional state school aid for the coming year and $40,000,000 in aid the following year was signed into law by Governor Goodwin Knight on June 20.

The bill boosts the annual state basic aid from $120 to $125 and also increases the state equalization aid, benefitting the poorer school districts.

TEACHERS' MINIMUM salaries were boosted from $3400 a year to $4200, accounting for much of the increase in funds.

Total state school apportionment under the 1957-58 budget of Governor Knight exceeded $498,500,000.

Teachers' retirement and school bond retirement funds were used to provide for the increase.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE avoided a veto by the governor by tapping these funds rather than the state reserve or "rainy day" funds. Knight had threatened a veto if the rainy day funds were used, and had said at the session's outset that he would veto any school aid increase not accompanied by a measure to raise additional necessary taxes.

But these tax measures, increases on cigarette and beer levies, sponsored by Ernest Geddes (R-Caremont), the Bill's author, and the California Association of Teachers were defeated in committee.

Local Homes To Get Mail

Congressman John F. Baldwin who represents Solano and Contra Costa Counties, today announced that the Post Office Department has authorized an extension of mail delivery service at Orinda.

This extension of service will apply to 12 homes along Bear Creek Road.

Damages Award Given to Orinda Property Owners

Award of $8622 in damages against two Oakland contracting firms, Frederickson and Watson Company and M. & K. Company, was granted by Superior Judge Normal A. Gregg last Friday in Martinez to six Orinda property owners.

The property owners had charged that excavating for the Orinda Interchange had caused damage to their properties. Operations of the contractors were temporarily halted in May, 1954, when sections of Brookwood Road collapsed.

Judge Gregg absolved the state, which had been sued jointly with the contracting firms.

Damages were awarded as follows by the court:

Mrs. Alta Tenery, 9 Northwood Drive, Orinda, $3701 Catherine L. Cox and Virginia M. Le Gault, Piedmont, $2421; Mrs. Elizabeth B. Shepard, San Leandro, and Mrs. Olin Wilson, Pasadena, as executors of the estate of their aunt, Mrs. Nellie Livingston, who lived at 20 Brookwood Road, Orinda, prior to her death in September, 1954, $1750; Mrs. Shepard and her husband, Robert L., owners of an adjoining lot, $750.

Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Le Gault asked $6000 for damages to their property at 16 Brookwood Road. Mrs. Tenery sued for $15,000, as did the Livingston estate executors. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard asked $5673.

Judge Gregg took the case under submission after hearing testimony May 28.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Waiting at the church!

ONE ORINDA MOTHER (M. L.) sat poolside sunning while her Brownie Troop celebrated w/a swimming party at the Jim Davidson home. When one of the young ladies inquired "how come" SHE didn't have a swim suit on if she was supposed to be a life guard, tired mother retorted, "You can all swim better than I can, but if I HAVE to, I can YELL louder!" (P. S. She didn't have to!)

A SWITCH TO THIS HITCH, for usually the Bridegroom or Best Man forgets the wedding ring behind, but last Saturday at the Laurensen (Betsy)-White (Ken) nuptials scheduled for 4 o'clock at Orinda Community Church, neither bride nor groom nor best man nor matron had remembered to bring along the marriage license.

While guests wiped their brows and sat and sighed, poor married husband-to-be had to hasten BACK to Berkeley for the necessary document. Everything finally smoothed out and the newlyweds are now living happily ever after.

Smiles and sets of twins run in family—

EYETEM. . . If you've often admired Helen Gibbs' outstanding smile. . . NO WONDER! Her maiden name was Lyons and her great grandpappy was Dr. I. W. Lyons, the original tooth powder man. Her father has been for years, and STILL is the honorable Mayor Lyons of Carmel!

And for the first time ever in family history, three (3) sets of twins in the Gibbs Clan were gathered under one roof simultaneously, following the Acaalans graduation, when present and acctd. for were Charlie's twin sister, Helen's sisters who are twins and the Gibbss' own twin boys, Bob and Dukey.

Newsworthy, too, is Barbara Gibbs (currently working at the Admitting and Info office of Peralta Hospital), who is being congratulated on her choice of a state scholarship to attend Scripps College in the fall.

ALREADY A SCRIPPS student is Beth Pickton, who'll be joined down South this week by her mother and brother, who will have a brief visit w/Beth before waving her off from Tijuana to a summer school stint in Guadalajara. . . Betty and son Geoffrey to spend some further time in the southland and siesta country w/Betty eyeing Ensenada while Geoff will do his best to detour her to Disneyland.

AMONG THE 9000 who stood in line Sunday at the SF CityOp House for tickets for F'Fair Lady was Wirtabel Harris, who is grinning like a Cheshire cat but would widen that grin even more so if you knew where she can still get seats for SO.PAC.

The Monday morning line-up at Sherman-Clay in Oakland was worth the three-hour stand for Twinn Hauer, who came away w/her coveted six ducats to this breaking-all-box-office-records musical.

SIGHTSEEN. . . The attractive blonde model in the SF Dept. Store ads is Kathy (Mrs. Jack) Berand, mother of two, who lives here on El Tonalito in Orinda.

Rating a royal welcome from their Vallecito Lane neighbors are the Daniel Bancrofts, formerly of Oakland, young-marrieds recently moved into the Bob Miller house.

The NEWEST BIKINI-STYLE SUNBATHER at Orinda Park Pool is Julie Graham, third daughter, fourth child, born June 6 to Jean and Paul Eyerly.

Marge and Bill Douglass named THEIR fourth "Timothy."

There seems to be a run on "fourth babies" /John and Louise Rasmussen among those heralding family additions before summer is out. And aside to the Bill Roses—We do make mistakes now and then, esp. when the kids are sitting totem-pole style on the type-writer, and so to JANE Rose, who is expecting her fourth, this month, we hereby correct the error in name.

Most pigeons would have flown the coop

A THIRD CHILD due for the Hugh Riegers called for a special sort of shower last Tuesday, Lauren Kersten, busy mother of six, hostessing the pretty party in the cool of her garden on Canon Drive. . . Here, Marge Reiger, the surprised recipient of diapers and MORE diapers but no such a thing as PLAIN ones, for packages oped to reveal squares in gay checks and gingham, pastel puppy-dog prints, some sprigged w/daises and others riotous w/roses.

Luncheon was served from a table w/a House & Garden idea of green and pink paper watermelons pinned to the sides of the giant-sized green checkered cloth, and from a gilded cage overhead, a cooing pigeon behaved quite well considering he had been labeled a STORK to suit the setting. Guests incl. Evelyn Roberts, Fae Smith, Virginia Howes, Evie Hopper (she'll summer at Echo Lake w/Gene and the children), Marian Long, Charlotte Chapple, Helen Behr, Sylvia Cox and Jane Courtright, who w/her Bill and the Jim Hills will take in the Las Vegas nitelite this wknd.

MID-PARTY, a surprise, when a Lafayette Florist delivery boy arrived to present "Mrs. Reiger" w/a mystery box, which when opened, revealed a corsage of yellow carnations wired to a baby rattle, the gift from Pat Higgins, who was unable to attend. (She, the creator of such floral art where she has been working at the local flower dispensary!)

We lose them to the Windy City

The Les Rows are flight-packing for their trip to England . . . Heavy-duty packing was left to the movers while the Bob Roths and their Mike, Robin and Chrissy languished at El Nido last sweltering Sunday, training on Monday for Chicago, where Bob has been transferred w/Kaiser Alton. . . A similar move in September scheduled for the Jack Watsons of Hidden Lane, Fran to spend three wks. in Santa Barbara this summer w/her family before she and the three tots, Johnny, Katherine and blonde baby Margaret join Jack in the Windy City in the late summer, when the worst of the heat is over.

The Robert Cases are expecting their daughter Carla Morse

The Newmans' exciting summer plans call for attending a Lawyers' Confab in London, for which they'll depart July 20, flying first to NY for a brief fling, thence by air to Europe, w/several special trips on their itinerary to include a Roman Holiday, a wknd. in Copenhagen.

The John Boyens' dog cornered a fox (FOX) under the dog-house one recent dog day and when the Milkman cometh, he contended it was a mole (MOLE), which it wasn't, milkman probably being a city boy at heart. Happily for Rosita Boyen, the small red fox made a getaway after being held captive for almost three hours, and now Rosita and her pooch are speaking again!

We know just how she feels, having trained out cats to "take it easy" on the Blue Jays or NO SAUCERS of milk! At our house, we even put the moths back OUT and let them fly away!

Pedder to Lead Drive In Diablo Valley Locale

Jack Pedder of Lafayette will serve as chairman of the 1957 Diablo Valley Area campaign of the Contra Costa County United Crusade, according to Charles Gable of Walnut Creek, County Crusade coordinator.

Pedder, insurance broker, is a member of the Lafayette Rotary Club, past president of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, member of the Lafayette Improvement Association, and has served in many capacities with the United Crusade since 1953.

He will be assisted in the Diablo Valley Area by the following community chairman: EARL CAPPEL, automobile dealer, Walnut Creek chairman; Richard Donovan, manager of the Bank of America, Pleasant Hill branch, Pleasant Hill chairman; D. L. Seidler, investment distributor, Danville-Alamo-San Ramon chairman.

George Eberhardt of Orinda will serve as public relations chairman for the Diablo Valley Area Campaign. An Oakland businessman, Eberhardt has served as Orinda Crusade chairman in 1955, and public relations chairman in the 1956 campaign. "There is no question in my mind that Diablo Valley Area campaign will meet its quota and top that of last year's excellent performance," Pedder said.

"THERE ARE nine member agencies directly benefiting from this annual over-all fund-raising campaign. In addition there are countless additional agencies covering voluntary health, welfare and youth organizations that are available to all residents of our community. To name a few—they are Booth Memorial Hospital, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, and Children's Home Society."

"We all know full well the importance of meeting our quota. This challenge is always met head on by the countless volunteers that give of their time and effort during this once-a-year campaign and is so rewarding for all of us," he added.

THE NINE agencies directly benefited in the Diablo Valley area are the Mt. Diablo Council of Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Contra Costa Cerebral Palsy, Herick Memorial Hospital Clinics, Diablo Valley Council of Girl Scouts, Mental Health Society of Contra Costa, Salvation Army, Volunteer Bureau of Walnut Creek and the Y.M.C.A.

Herb Miller, assistant manager of the Bank of America, Walnut Creek branch, will serve as chairman of the Commerce and Industry Division.

Banquet Held

The Aero Mayflower Transit Company entertained employees of their Oakland agent, the U.C. Express and Storage Company, at a banquet last week at the Sea Wolf in Jack London Square, Oakland.

Among those attending were company manager Andy Colwell and his wife Helen of Lafayette, sales manager Bill Brum and his wife Lucy of Walnut Creek, Bud and Jessie Salvason, Mr. and Mrs. John Povich, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Esquibel, Rudy and Ruth Mohar and Mollie Burton, all of Walnut Creek; Carl and Maxine Dysinger, John and Luella Hanberry of Concord and Mr. and Mrs. Crumrine of Orinda.

Fiesta Fete Starts Today Lafayette Bypass Opens;

Lafayette Bypass—2.6-mile, $3,300,000 link in the developing Diablo Freeway—was officially opened to traffic yesterday morning.

Opening ceremonies were arranged under the leadership of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, as has been the three day Lafayette Freeway Fiesta of today; tomorrow and Sunday.

Heralded by commuters, local business people and state officials as a major development, the Lafayette Bypass was under construction since October 17, 1955. Gordon H. Ball of Danville is general contractor.

"The opening of this four-lane section eliminates the most seriously congested portion of highway between Oakland and Walnut Creek," states B. W. Booker, assistant state highway engineer in charge of the district IV office of the State Division of Highways in San Francisco.

John Black, chamber vice president was in charge of arrangements for the opening ceremonies. These ceremonies got underway at 10:30 a.m. yesterday when cars assembled in the El Nido parking area near Upper Happy Valley Road.

After assembly, cars proceeded under traffic control to the site of the first barrier - removing ceremony on the eastbound lanes near the Lafayette Undercrossing, in the vicinity of Sunnybrook Drive.

Instead of the traditional "ribbon-cutting" type of ceremony, a helicopter of Contractor Ball swooped down and removed a barrier from the west end of the bypass.

The cars then traveled on the eastbound lanes of the freeway bypass to a spot near the Pleasant Hill Road interchange, at the eastern end of the project.

There the Ball helicopter removed a second barrier, and the entourage of cars returned along the westbound lanes, to the western end of the bypass.

Following the initial round-trip journey along the bypass, Contractor Ball was host to invited guests at a cocktail party at El Nido, after which a luncheon gathering was held at El Nido.

Along with community leaders and state and county officials, those present at the opening ceremonies included Fiesta Queen Dolores Roeschen and her two "ladies-in-waiting," Pat Whitehead and Betty Clark.

The three girls, who graduated from Acalanes High School recently, were candidates for Lafayette Fiesta Queen.

Eighteen year old Dolores, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roeschen of 3744 Mosswood Dr., Lafayette was selected by a committee of judges consisting of Charles R. Rose of the John Robert Powers Modeling School, Oakland; Barry Evans, Oakland commercial photographer, and Arthur Rarey of Lee Ann's Beauty Academy, Oakland.

With them when they interviewed the girls on June 17 was an alternate judge, Newt Humphreys of Newt's Physical Culture School, Oakland.

The girls went through poses and paces at Fiesta Fashions store. After that the judges interviewed the girls further at dinner. Announcement of the judges' choice was made June 19 at Lafayette Plaza.

Queen Dolores was especially thrilled, since last September she was chosen queen of the annual Walnut Festival in Walnut Creek.

She will reign over the three-day Lafayette Freeway Fiesta of this Friday, Saturday and Sunday with the assistance of her two "ladies-in-waiting."

The gala Fiesta will have a true carnival atmosphere, with varied entertainment features to be offered.

The Fiesta grounds are at the south side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, just east of Mountain View Drive.

A score of concessions will be operated by service clubs and other organizations.

Among highlights of the Freeway Fiesta will be a junior baseball parade this Friday evening and a horsemen's parade on Sunday.

The youth baseball parade with hundreds of lads marching in baseball uniforms, will start at 7:30 p.m. this Friday at the vicinity of Moraga Road and will proceed westward along Mt. Diablo Boulevard to the Fiesta grounds, according to Jack Hageman, chamber Fiesta chairman.

The horsemen's parade, expected to include 200 equestrians and their mounts, will follow the same route. It will start at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

The queen and her "ladies-in-waiting" will be in the parades. Queen Dolores Roeschen, Pat Whitehead and Betty Clark will tour Contra Costa County in a convertible car Saturday and on Tuesday, to call attention to the Fiesta.

The car in which they rode was decorated with large signs announcing the big Lafayette event.

Local service clubs have been visited by the three girls, for the same purpose. In these visits they were escorted by James Ring of the Lafayette Kiwanis Club.

Precautions For Vacation Folk Suggested

Vacationers who will leave their homes vacant for any period of time have been cautioned to take certain precautions by County Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

His reminders were as follows:

1. Notify your newspaper dealer, milkman etc. to cease deliveries.
2. Arrange to have a neighbor empty your mailbox frequently.
3. Turn off all pilot lights.
4. Pull main electric switch unless you wish to maintain a freezer.
5. Store safely all movable patio and garden accessories.
6. Partially draw shades.
7. Notify the nearest Sheriff's Department Sub-station as to the duration of your stay and the exact location of your property, if you reside in an unincorporated area, or your local police department if within a city.

Brown also had this to say:

"All 'vacation' houses, as they are reported by residents, are listed by your Sub-station staff. At the commencement of each shift the patrol deputy checks-out the vacation-house-log so that he can, during the course of his patrol shift, call at each location. If he finds anything unusual or different from the prior day's check-out he prepares a call-card, noting the details, and requesting the resident to contact the office.

"If the circumstances indicate that an immediate investigation is necessary (such as evidence of burglary or malicious mischief) your Sheriff's Department will contact your custodian (normally your next door neighbor) and start an immediate investigation. The incidence of breaking and entering can be materially reduced through the close co-operation of your Patrol, vacationing residents and custodians of vacation houses.

ROUGH IDLING
A common complaint among motorists is the rough idling and engine stalling of their automobiles. The usual cause for this condition is a dirty or gummy carburetor. Other causes are defective automatic choke, air leaks

NOTED PEOPLE ARE GATHERING—and will gather—at the home of Dr. Bella Singer in Walnut Creek. Seated at the table are Dr. and Mrs. Bela Schick, who visited the Singers recently. This Sunday, other notables will gather when the Bay Area Printmaker's Society meets at the Singer home. Standing by Dr. Singer is her husband, Dr. Stein. Bathroom Design Being Improved in New Homes..

The newest innovation in home building since Jayne Mansfield announced plans for a heart-shaped bathtub in her new mansion was reported in a national magazine last week... a double bathtub bathroom!

Master TV Installer EARLING V. WIIG (Earling TV) who has been installing master TV antennae, which reliver signals to residential areas which are otherwise unable to receive TV, is installing an ingenious device for a new subdivision in Lafayette.

THIS RIG WILL pick up signals on the hills and beam them to receivers in the valley below... no cables. EARLING has received acclaim in other fields also... was written about in RIPLEY'S 'Believe It or Not' on two occasions... once for raising a three-legged chicken and another time for ski-jumping off barn roofs covered with feathers.

Walnut Creek Builder JOHN OSMUNDSEN and family who miraculously escaped serious injury in a headon crash a Saturday ago on Mt. Diablo Blvd. have recovered except for Peggy, unfortunately, having a broken foot.

CARQUINEZ BRIDGE history revealed by GEORGE VAN METER at Walnut Creek Kiwanis Club recently discussed the dramatic events which led up to the raising of the center span of this then largest bridge west of the Mississippi. The second spanning of the CARQUINEZ STRAITS has also produced a thrill already... for a member of Walnut Creek's younger generation. JIMMY FULLER was given a rock by BOB WENDELL taken from the excavation for the piling... it contained real GOLD!

VERN RYAN, Danville Builder, building approximately 15 (fifteen) houses a year in the $25,000 to $35,000 bracket. Found demand was almost entirely for 4-bedroom homes last year... increasing size of families creating need for more bedrooms... has one 5-bedroom planned now and is considering speculating on several more.

MARVIN ROSS (E. J. Carey Realtors-Lafayette) was just elected Real Estate Mart Breakfast Chairman. MARVIN is qualified to handle some of the problems this job entails. He is a Retired Marine Colonel and fought in the Second World War at Guadalcanal and other South Pacific campaigns.

FRANK CURTIS (Ed Wallace Real Estate—Orinda)... clearly expressed the problem most realtors are running into in this area. High taxes are creating definite buyer resistance. Points for buyers to consider:

- 1) Contra Costa County is paying for new modern schools—other areas have already paid for the antiquated facilities that are being used;
- 2) Faster rate of depreciation in older sections of Oakland and San Francisco could offset higher tax rates in this area.

Belafonte to Give Program At Opera House

"An evening with Belafonte," a three-act concert program starring Harry Belafonte and featuring a 12-man chorus, will come to the War Memorial Opera House Monday.

There will be six evening performances with a Saturday matinee on July 6, and with the final performance that evening.

Belafonte, called the nation's foremost proponent of musical folk lore, will do a program consisting of practically all new material.

He will sing 23 songs divided into three acts that will be categorically identified as "Songs of the American Negro," "In the Caribbean" and "Round the World."

Belafonte is on-stage throughout the three-act presentation, accompanied by his ever-present guitarist, Millard Thomas, and two additional accompanists, Vic Messer and Daniel Barranjos.

Seats are on sale at Sherman Clay in San Francisco and Oakland, also at Breuer's in Oakland and Berkeley.

'Sergeants' Opens Run at Geary Theater

"No Time for Sergeants," the uproarious comedy hit of the last two years on Broadway, and the past season in Chicago, will open at the Geary Theater, San Francisco, Tuesday.

San Francisco will be one of the first cities to have the Ira Levin laugh hit following its record run of 33 weeks in Chicago, as well as the only Northern California booking of the popular play this year.

STARTING JULY 14, Sunday evening performances, with a 7 o'clock curtain, will be added to the schedule. There will be only two Wednesday matinees on July 3 and 10, but the regular Saturday matinee will be held every week at 2:30.

Adapted from Mac Hyman's best-selling novel of the same name, "No Time for Sergeants" deals with the hilarious events that follow the induction of a Georgia plowboy, Will Stockdale, into the Air Force.

AMABLE WILL breaks all the rules, confuses his superiors, but always manages to come out victorious. James Holden will be seen as Will, and other leading roles will be taken by King Calder, Louis Beachner and Cliff Hall.

Area Problems Require Cooperative Viewpoint

If the old saying, "It's a small world," is true on an international scale, it's doubly true locally, as regards the various communities in our area and Contra Costans' relationship with neighboring counties.

Each community and each county has its special individual characteristics and problems, of course—but they all also have many important things in common, including pleasant factors, controversial subjects and pressing problems.

At the risk of sounding too facetious, we point to the weather and what is often referred to as "casual country living" as common subjects for a large portion of the Bay Area.

Seriously, however, examples of closeness of interests are many. Here are just a few that come to mind:

1. Efforts for establishment of better public library service are under way in Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Concord.

2. Freeway construction progresses, link by link, with the developing Diablo Freeway a vital project for all of Central Contra Costa County.

(The Lafayette Bypass was opened to traffic yesterday, the Walnut Creek-to-Monument stretch was completed early this year; Orinda Interchange was completed a couple of years ago; preliminary construction work is already under way on the Walnut Creek Bypass.)

3. Problems involving the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District—and the pro and con arguments revolving around it—are of concern to both Contra Costa and Alameda Counties.

4. The Bay Area Rapid Transit District (at present a five-county project) has far-reaching potentialities for the entire Bay Area.

5. Current interest in the possibility of a borough form of government among local communities serves to underscore the many problems shared by the different communities.

All of which should give us pause and should help us in developing a cooperative attitude toward neighboring communities and counties.

Too often, without really meaning it, we are inclined to assume an attitude toward a neighboring community or county as if, almost, it were some foreign land.

When one considers that only a few miles separate one town from another and that the Bay Area probably has more common problems than it has differences, the absurdity of this type of "isolation" becomes readily apparent.

As in intelligent appraisal and discussion of any problems, to be cooperative and understanding does not mean being "yes-men."

On the contrary, it means expressing differing—even conflicting—viewpoints frankly but without animosity or suspicion that the other party is trying to "flim-flam" us—and WITH the idea of sincerely attempting to solve our common problems.

The Staff Corner

New School Taxes Needed

By LOU CANNON

Most of us have given up taking our schools for granted.

Still, in spite of our concern, we are a long way from even beginning to solve the problem of finding adequate school funds.

Last week the governor signed a bill providing for a basic need and equalization increase for state schools.

MANY OF THE CENTRAL county districts, especially the relatively poor districts, will benefit from this measure.

There were some who thought that the final amount should have been higher. Undoubtedly, there were a few who would have trimmed the amount more heavily.

A gentleman whose letter appears on this page feels that the "vested cigarette and beer interests" killed the important tax provisions and made necessary the legislative tapping of the teachers retirement monies.

THERE ARE MANY who share this opinion.

But most of the otherwise satisfied still level one criticism—the brief, two-year duration of the measure.

School needs become much larger each year. Existing methods of financing, designed for a smaller, stabler system, struggle manfully to provide our "exploding population" with the schools we need, but have not been equal to the task.

OR, RATHER, WILL not be equal to the job in the very near future.

The present measure, whatever its shortcomings, will keep the lid on the jar until the legislators convene again in regular session in 1958.

But this next time, they'll have to take a more realistic look at the source of school funds.

Who will pay this piper five years from now?

SOME PARTISANS OF cigarette and beer increases are fond of saying that our children are worth more than these questionable pleasures.

This truism has always struck this reporter as somewhat an irrelevant reason for taxing these particular consumers of legal products more heavily than they are already taxed.

Our children are worth more than any "vested interest," as far as I am concerned, but this still leaves open the question of just how or to what extent the consumer (you or me) should be called upon to finance the schools.

ISN'T HEALTH PENALIZED enough by cigarette smoking, without adding this additional burden upon the tobacco user?

And how far would these taxes go? How long would they last before still another boost would be necessary?

Wouldn't it be necessary to raise these taxes again in 1957?

The cigarette and beer tax sponsors are on safer, saner, ground when they state that the taxes must indeed come from "somewhere," that we cannot go on raiding one or the other of our state funds.

This is one thing we darn well can't do. And yet, another taxing bill sponsored by Assemblyman Carlos Bee, (D-Hayward) was also rejected by the assembly.

Unlike the cigarette and beer levies, teacher-legislator Bee's proposal was a "progressive" tax, one that is based upon ability to pay. His measure called for the raising of state income taxes on all incomes above a certain level.

But this bill received even less support than the cigarette beer tax proposal.

Somewhere within the range of these proposals exists a solution to the current problem of state school aid—At least a better solution than we have now.

One thing is certain. In 1959 the California Teachers Association will be back to ask for more. The present good-enough bill will do a job until then.

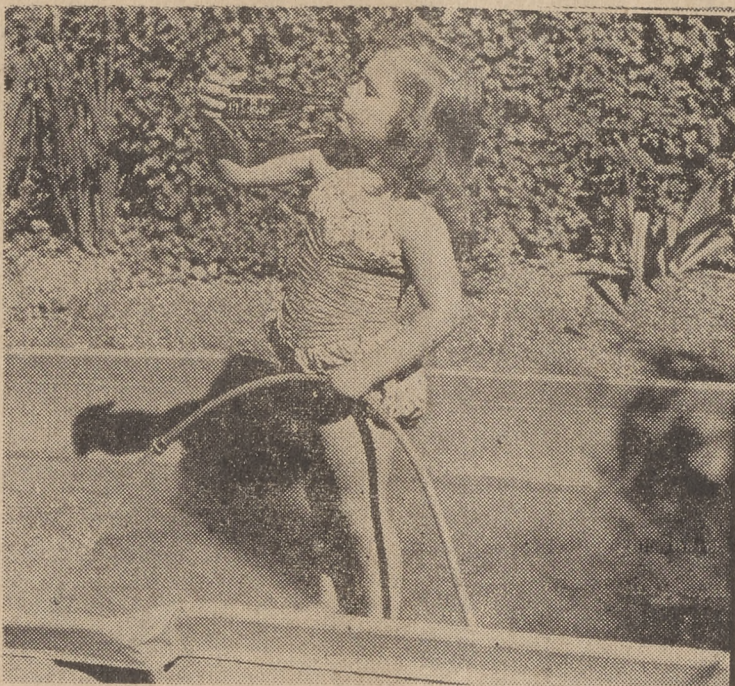

By then, we'd better have an answer to that old chestnut:

How should we tax ourselves?

Sun Strokes

Arbitrary Name Change Draws Columnist's Ire

By PAT PENDING

I had heard that the price of newsprint had gone up but I didn't think the raise was drastic enough to necessitate the cutting of a seven letter word to five!

I named this column "Sun Strokes"—not "Sun Spots"!

A leopard cannot change his spots—and Pat won't change his "Strokes" (that's why I never break a hundred!).

Sun spots affect many things including radio reception. I doubt if my column affects anything much.

I read that a home is needed for the El Rey burlesque show—soon to be orphaned by the State Highway Department. It seems they want to run a freeway through the runway! I cannot think of a better place for a freeway than through a burlesque show! Why don't they let the show go on? Think of how happy it would make the 4:30 P.M. commuters who don't watch the road anyway!

Some of the older ones could undoubtedly recall the World War II slogan during gas rationing:

"Is this strip necessary?"

Someone asked me what a "fillibuster" is: Isn't it a cowpoke who only breaks young mares?

Speaking of horses—do you have a daughter that wants one? I have. She claims that we can really clean up at the track with a broomtail. She has been after me to get her a horse for years and I'd like to oblige but I only own (along with an insurance company) a piece of land 90'x150'. It's a lot but not lot enough for a nag according to restrictions. My daughter insists upon nagging me. Now she has even taught her pet parakeet to say:

"I want a horse!"

I ask you, what would a parakeet do with a horse? As a matter of fact—what would a horse want with a parakeet?

One thing I admire about horses is that they never go out on strike. At least I've never seen one hobbling around picketing the other horses!

Bug season is here again. There's tiny black and tiny green ones. They fly, jump, skip and flip. They surreptitiously fall into the foam on your beer. They're buggin' you, brother!

There's one on my paper now that looks like a taxpayer—really beat!

Letters to The Editor

IN ACCORD

Dear Editor:

It was with a feeling of deep dismay that we read last week of the formation of a group of citizens in Pleasant Hill into a body expressly designed to see that a house in their neighborhood was not sold to Negroes. This was more than offset, however, by the "Staff Corner" column by Lou Cannon entitled "Let's be Imprudent Enough." (True, the first was not in your columns, but in those of another paper.)

We write to tell you that we are in accord with this column. More than just accord — total agreement. Total agreement, coupled with grateful thanks that there is among you at least one (and perhaps more!) who is willing to "stir up a little thought" on this issue.

Our experience too often has been that newspapers represent primarily the status quo view on matters of social progress, and that this is especially true of the smaller weekly papers that presumably are closer to their readers than the "big city dailies."

Our experiences in living in mixed neighborhoods, as we have in the past, has been that we have been the losers when we moved from them to what are in effect segregated communities or neighborhoods. With the Caucasians being the majority colors of the world, we feel that as Caucasians we are doing both ourselves and our child a grave injustice to live and act as though we had all the answers.

To our knowledge, there has not been a major religious or philosophical teacher who has not firmly believed, taught, and acted that all men are equal in the eyes of God, and to use the phrases of one of them "to love our brother as ourselves." "Democracy," "Freedom of Opportunity," "Free Enterprise" all ring hollow to us as we think of our friends who cannot vote, who cannot work because they are often prevented from becoming our neighbors solely because they, like us, had no choice in the color skin they were to be born with.

BOB AND DORENE BARNES

SCHOOL FUNDS

Dear Editor:

I want to express my appreciation for the fine articles and pictures you published announcing my receipt of the valuable National Science Foundation Summer Scholarship.

The eight weeks study at U.C. should be an enriching and instructive experience and make me a more effective science teacher. Thus, ultimately our children could benefit as much or perhaps (it is hoped) more than I. But to add a contradictory and unsettling note, considering the many overcrowded classrooms, and the frequent lack of adequate facilities that I will face on my return to teaching this fall I fear that much of my extensive (and expensive) training will remain unutilized.

I am not claiming that the administration of this district has not tried to provide the best teaching environment, but rather because of inadequate financing the best that can be provided with the funds available falls seriously short of the kind of teaching situation that must be provided for the truly effective education of today's children.

Consider my situation as somewhat typical of a large portion of the schools in California and one must realize that we are doing our youth and our Nation a grave injustice. At a time when we need highly trained and educated individuals we are far too slowly providing the kinds of teachers and schools that will develop these individuals.

Where is the good sense of our people and our representatives in the California legislature when they fail to pass the 70 million dollar (a still inadequate sum) school apportionment bill? How can we consider a few vested interests in such things as cigarettes or beer more important than the futures of our children.

NOT A BAD WORD

Dear Editor:

I am a newcomer here in Walnut Creek. I did not want to come to live here—as a matter of fact. But now I have read your (Lou Cannon's Staff Corner) column in The Sun, and I feel that if there are only a few people like you—and I don't think "imprudent" is such a bad word—then this is not going to be such a bad place to live in after all.

He is a courageous and honest man. More power to him!

Under The Sun

A Very Busy Evening; No Life of Crime Here!

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Editor and Publisher Herman Silverman is still on vacation. Therefore, out of necessity, members of The Sun staff are filling the white space in this area, which belongs especially to The Editor. Having been warned, you will find that the following words were written by Sun staffer Dick Osborn.

Just a quiet 70 miles per

Had a real unique experience the other day. Rode down Mt. Diablo Boulevard at about 70 miles per hour, just after dusk, and didn't worry about getting a ticket for one instant.

Of course, I worried a little about staying alive, but I certainly didn't worry about the minions of the law catching up with me. (At that speed, on that highway, it seems doubtful that ANTHING could catch up, but let it pass, let it pass.)

Wasn't worried about being caught by patrol car for simple reason that I was in one... and was travelling like mad... on business.

Had received invitation to travel around on patrol with Sheriff's Office car one night, and being bored, accepted. Promptly stopped being bored... got scored.

Also got uncomfortable. Was ushered, politely, into back seat of patrol car. Found windows didn't open. Found doors didn't open either. Found myself stuck.

Found out later that Deputy Sheriff and reserve had seat belts... wedged myself in with old flashlights and assorted gear just a little tighter.

Spent couple of hours serving (vicariously) warrants for jury duty. Not exciting. Enjoyed foolish smiles on faces of people who accepted warrants and said "Thank you" when you could see that they weren't exactly pleased.

Reflected that jury duty is part of being a citizen, and that Sheriff's officers didn't like to deliver them anymore than citizens appreciated receiving them... all in a day's work.

And not a critical in sight

Snooped around county. Quiet. No criminals in evidence. Eyed each car and passerby suspiciously, but found the average run of honest, busy, friendly Contra Costa folk.

Began to hope for criminal activity and remembered... no safety belt. Doors don't open. No windows. Sat back and relaxed.

Observed that patrol duty in Sheriff's car is hard work. Resolved to stop kidding my friends who are thus employed. Always checking, they are, and always driving. Always translating that gibberish that comes over the radio into meaningful phrases.

Sounded to me like so much alphabet soup with a sprinkling of numbers thrown in... "784, Control Two... car... 510... check?" We ignored it. (My numbers may be wrong, too, because I think somebody was gargling right behind the receiver.)

Found that when a call for our car came in, action followed promptly.

Found that six-cylinder Ford capable of truly frightening speeds... especially when being driven by expert with one hand while the other hand fiddles with that same old radio.

Found that Sheriff's car can be almost anywhere in county in no time flat (if there's a passenger, he's flat on his face in the back seat reviewing a sinful and wasted existence) and that cars purposely cruise without set pattern.

Seemed sensible when reflected that if you don't know where you're going to be, the criminals can't know either. Consequently, found no criminals.

It's your mobile money's worth

Reflected in calm moment, after wiping off perspiration, that each patrol car is self-contained unit of real protection for Mr. and Mrs. resident. You call, they come, and your troubles are over... if you're on the right side of the law.

Reflected on amount of judgment and general know-how displayed by officers. Found new respect for these men, and decided to shelve plans for life of crime. Admitted to self that they are probably a lot smarter than I am, and besides, they know what they're doing.

Considered that although cost of operating patrol cars is high, amount of protection provided is fabulous and is well worth the cost.

Returned home as subdued, peaceable, nervous citizen. Returned pennies I had snatched from piggy bank. Upped wife's allowance. Resolved to get to work on time. Went to bed exhausted.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

By CONNIE KIENEY
Guest Editor

After a "Warm" weekend of city folk and barbecuing, here I sit trying to pinch-hit for that clever gal, Ina, who's flown the coop for a couple of weeks.

You see, she not only is an accomplished columnist. Here we have a talented gal! And, if you plan to take in the Alameda County Fair which opened in Pleasanton last Friday, drop in the Pleasanton Hotel and you will see our columnist as the charming and efficient hostess of the hotel's beautiful dining room. As my husband willingly tells everyone, the food tastes twice as good with Ina bustling around.

THE WARM WEATHER seems to be keeping everyone in their backyards soaking up the luscious (?), luminous sun. The gambling blood of Bev and Bud Miller and Don and Marilyn Wylie got the best of them, however, and they braved the Reno heat for a week-end of one-arm bandits and silver dollars.

Ann and Dave Penna (that handsome Walnut Creek building contractor) took off with their two offspring for a weekend at Dave's mother's ranch in Orland. Dr. and Mrs. Kendall Caldwell of Lafayette journeyed down the Peninsula to relax at Dinah's Motel in Palo Alto and to help celebrate Mrs. Caldwell's sister's birthday.

A darn lucky family, too!

The Charles Fuller's of Walnut Creek had the right idea with a family barbecue and swim party celebrating four family birthdays. The rest of the "outraged" neighborhood pulled out the kids' wading pools and made the best of it while the Fuller's pool was closed to everyone not included in the Fuller clan.

Who says hot weather is bad for selling a house? Lorraine and Dick Olsen signed away their Walnut Creek house over the week-end, have to move within three weeks and you guessed it, don't have a place in which to move. So, instead of spending delightful days in the swimming pool at Castlewood Country Club with young son, John, (she insists he's a future Olympic star at the age of 16 months), and Janis and Mark Romak (another star at the age of 11 months), Mrs. "O" can be found at home taking on the packing detail.

Another Auxiliary member, maybe?

Good news to these old ears, was the addition of a 6 lb. 6 oz., girl to the Bob Schroder family. If she looks anything like her ma, she's really a radiant beauty 'cause that gal, Francis really has it.

CAN IMAGINE THAT four-year old Robie is really a proud big brother. While in the stork section, hear via the grapevine that the Warren Wetteroth's are expecting an addition in November. Young Chuck undoubtedly looks forward to a playmate in the family.

After dutifully helping Ron get in the front lawn and other spring planting, Darlene Barron takes off this Sunday for their cabin at Lake Tahoe with daughters, Linda and Laurie. Ron will join them later.

And here's another swimming party!

The Junior Parakeets had a get acquainted swim party for prospective new members at the Danville home of Mrs. C. Wadsworth (Betty) White. For those of you who may not already know, the Junior Parakeets is a group of hard working teenage girls who, as you might guess, is the junior group to the Mary Doyle Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center.

These young ladies do a bang-up job each year in helping the Center. Latest of their accomplishments is a brand new stove in the kitchen of the new building of the Therapy Center for use of both staff and patients. An item long needed and wanted by the Center! The Mesdames C. R. Graff, Hugh Gordon and John Rasmussen of the Mary Doyle Unit assisted Betty White with the soft drinks and refreshments.

Buckeye Ranch seems to be in the limelight this week. You can spot Sally Steller with sons, Tom and Ed, up there just about every afternoon. Robert and Camille Simpson of Carlos Court, Walnut Creek are spending most of their time there, too, before Robert is off to Camp Erwin in Barstow for two weeks of (groan!) maneuvers.

Their good friends, Captain and Mrs. Howard Dommert, are being transferred to Germany so this calls for a neighborhood get-together to say "so-long".

Off to Grandmother's house we go

Betty and Bill Evans have been enjoying the company of Betty's mother, Mrs. Claire Bissell. The neighbors got together to say farewell to Mrs. Bissell who left for Somerset, Pennsylvania. She wasn't alone, however, because the youngest Evans, Brett, took off with Grandma.

WHAT COLUMNIST can get through a column without mention of proud offspring? I'm no exception. Young son Tom goes to his first birthday party tomorrow. Pam Christensen, whose ma is Suzanne Benoy, whose ma is administrator of the Therapy Center, reaches the ripe old age of one tomorrow and all the diaper set is really going to kick up their heels. Hope we mothers survive!

I'm going swimming. See you next week? Ina, I miss you.

Parents Warned to Care For Children's Teeth

"One-third of the children entering kindergarten next fall will not be dentally-ready for school, if past experience is any indication," said Dr. Z. M. Stadt today.

The assistant health officer, in charge of the County Health Department's Dental Division, called on parents to follow a "6 ways to better dental health" program this summer:

FIRST: ALL PRESCHOOL children should be seen by the family dentist or pedodontist (specialist in children's dentistry) by the time they are three years of age, or when they have all their primary teeth.

Second: All needs for dental care of children entering kindergarten next fall should be cared for this summer, so that time out of school for dental appointments will be kept at a minimum.

Third: Make early appointments, don't wait until August.

Fourth: Summertime snacking should consist of wholesome foods, including dairy products, fresh vegetables, fresh fruits and chilled fresh fruit and vegetable drinks.

FIFTH: TEETH SHOULD be brushed right after eating, whether meals or snacks.

Sixth: When toothbrushing is not possible, swish with water and swallow.

In concluding his 6 points for summertime dental health action, Dr. Stadt noted that: "Toothbrushing will be greatly improved if parents will compare teeth to dishes. No child would want to eat food served on a dish that had not had the remains of a previous meal washed off, yet that's the situation when they don't brush their teeth after eating!"

There is one big difference: Dishes won't decay, teeth will!"

Christian Science Toastmasters Tell Award Winners

How spiritual understanding of the inspired Word of the Bible brings hope and healing will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christian Science churches in the area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Lafayette Climbs in Legion Circuit

Walnut Creek, Concord Slip Down Ladder

Concord and Walnut Creek moved down the Legion Junior baseball ladder in Ninth District League Legion weekend games while Lafayette and El Cerrito advanced.

But the league-leading Richmond nine won its only game to retain a one-half game lead with a 5-2 record.

Lafayette won a pair of 9-0 games, by forfeit from Martinez and on the field against Concord to move into a three-way tie for second at 4-3.

El Cerrito also swept two, from Concord 4-0 and from Harry Ells of Richmond 5-2, to take sole possession of second place with a 4-2 mark.

Concord established an unenviable season record as it suffered its third consecutive shutout defeat. The Diablo club has failed to cross the plate during its last 30 innings.

In the thick of the championship fight last week, Concord nosedived from second to seventh with three wins and four losses. In other games, Walnut Creek was overwhelmed by Richmond 24-2 on Saturday and by Martinez 10-1 on Sunday; Harry Ells whipped San Pablo 7-5 on Saturday and El Cerrito came from behind to beat the Ells team 5-2 on Sunday.

In the Sunday game at Concord City Park, Lafayette's Mike Kristner yielded only three hits and displayed perfect control while striking out 15 Concord batsmen.

The Lafayette team turned in what was probably its best game of the season, committing only one error and unleashing a 12-hit attack which included three by Kristner.

Concord's Phil Seyer surrendered 11 of the hits enroute to his first loss, but the big blow against him was a third-inning grand slam home run by Lou Marello.

Marello tallied Gary Baird, Kristner and Chris Rinne ahead of him.

Catcher Dave Bojarsky matched his batterymate at the plate with three hits in four appearances.

Bespectacled John Flovin had a no-hitter going against the Concord club Saturday at El Cerrito, but shortstop Bill Stone singled off him in the sixth inning for the visitor's only hit.

Ron Licht had a three-hitter for the losers, but his teammates committed five errors in the field.

Walnut Creek was victimized by a 17-hit Richmond attack on the winner's field Saturday which included a seven-run sixth and an eight-run seventh inning.

Pat Fleming hit a home run for the winners, and Larry Madrid had four for five.

At Martinez on Sunday, Jeff Beaubin tallied in the first inning on three errors to give Walnut Creek a short-lived 1-0 lead.

But Gary DeMonner hit a three-run homer in the bottom of the first off Bob McDougall and Martinez settled down afield to win going away.

IN SATURDAY'S MARTINEZ-Lafayette contest, Martinez was 20 minutes late in getting a ninth man to the East Contra Costa JC field and the umpires ruled Lafayette the winner by the forfeit score of 9-0.

Batting 'Em Out

By GORDON McNULTY

Sun Valley Lumber and Gaston's Cleaners continue on their respective winning streaks in the Lafayette Youth Association baseball program.

In their fourth week of play both teams have continued to have good pitching, which appears to be the crux of play for all teams so far.

As an example of this, the Lafayette Pharmacy team, in the Major League, who had not won a game in the first three weeks of play, finally had their pitcher, Chris Westphal, find the groove, to shut out LaFiesta Meats 8 to 0 Monday evening. In pitching the first no-hitter in this league, Westphal allowed only two walks.

Westphal was spared one of the walks reaching home by a beautiful catch in right field by Peter Shaffer, who threw home after the tag up, to catch the runner.

Soltau Team Places Third In AAU Meet

The Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, Pacific Association, held its Junior Outdoor Women's Synchronized Swimming Meet at Palo Alto High School last Saturday.

Nine clubs from San Francisco, Oakland, Napa, Vallejo, Palo Alto and Walnut Creek participated. The Soltau Swim Club of Walnut Creek was the only organization representing Contra Costa County.

The Soltau team placed third in the team competition. It performed a number called "Sailor's Shenanigans." Members of the Soltau team were Judy Laity and Sandy Perry of Lafayette, Judy Baumann of Orinda and Nancy Stephens and Madeline de Klotz of Walnut Creek.

As the result of the Soltau team's placing, it has been invited to enter the Senior National AAU Synchronized Swimming Championship on July 26, 27 and 28 at Temescal Pool, Oakland.

Anyone interested in learning more about synchronized swimming can do so by tuning in to "Success Story" at 7 p.m. next Thursday on KGO-TV Channel 7.

PARKING DAMAGE

Bumping front wheels against the curb while parking often causes misalignment of front wheels and resultant steering trouble. Misalignment is usually detected by uneven tire wear or when the automobile develops a tendency to pull to the side of the highway.

CC Merchants Hot On Bercovich Nine In Connie Mack

The Contra Costa Merchants Baseball team was hot on the trail of the league leading Bercovich and Sons nine after coping a pair of wins in the Connie Mack circuit over the week end.

The local nine really shot the works last Saturday when they posted a 6-0 no hit shut out game over hosting Fremont of Centerville. Rod Atip was in rare form as the Concord flash blazed his way to the win while striking out 15 and walking three.

Atip hit a home run as did his teammate Bill Frost.

In other games Saturday Bercovich played an 8-8 tie with Alameda Merchants while Oakland Aircraft pulled a surprise 3-2 win over East Oakland.

In Sunday's games Contra Costa playing at Acalanes Field registered a 4-1 win behind the 17 strike out pitching of Mike Mayne. East Oakland got its lone run in the third on a home run by Ron Burges.

Bercovich came through with a lopsided 15-2 win over Fremont with pitcher Dick Williamson setting down 16 would be hitters via the strikeout.

Alameda Merchants got in the win parade when they edged Oakland Aircraft 8-7.

Fawn Survival Is Good, State Field Reports Show

Deer range reports from Department of Fish and Game personnel show a general fawn survival this spring well above average.

The reports also indicate improved forage conditions in many areas because of a milder than usual winter and better than usual growing season.

These and other factors allowed the deer to scatter over a wider range instead of concentrating in limited areas and over-browsing the available forage.

WILLIAM P. Dasmann, in charge of the department's big game investigations, said the spring track count of the northward-migrating Devil's Garden Interstate Deer Herd showed the herd is maintaining its population despite the fact that from 1948 to 1956 more than 40,000 deer have been removed from the herd by hunting.

This includes 30,248 legal bucks and 19,716 antlerless deer, as reported by the Oregon and California departments.

He said this year's figures of 11,695 northbound deer from the Devil's Garden herd as of June 5 compares favorably with the 1956 spring count of 12,244, explaining that 17 counting days were lost this year because of adverse weather conditions and only nine days were lost last year for the same reason.

THUS, HE said, the herd counts are very conservative and reflect only a minimum figure whenever several counting days are lost.

By way of comparison, in 1947,

All-Breed Dog Show Will Be Tomorrow at Acalanes

Converging on Lafayette tomorrow will be breeders of show dogs with 650 blue ribbon animals from all parts of the state and other parts of the nation, for the annual all-breed dog show and obedience trials of the Contra Costa Kennel Club.

Acalanes High School's North Field will be the setting for the seven-ring show, to be open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Almost 100 of the entries will be in the obedience classes, according to G. Albert Wahl of Lafayette, club president. This follows the current tendency among fanciers to demonstrate the intelligence and trainability of show dogs, and many of these 100 entries will also be shown in the "beauty" competition.

A breakdown of the entries by Dr. Joseph P. Murphy of Happy Valley, show chairman, indicated

Orinda Splits Tennis Doubles Against Sacto

Last week saw two tennis tournaments at Orinda Country Club for Junior boys—one with a team from the club pitted against the Sacramento team, and the other among the OCC boys themselves.

The doubles results against Sacramento were:
Gene Pora and Rick Donelson, Sacto, 6-2, 6-2, over John Freeman and Josh Jensen, OCC; Miller Freeman and Neal Freeman, OCC, won their match 2-6, 6-3 and 7-5 from Sacto boys Dick Skeehan and Ron Gant.

IN SINGLES, Gene Paradzin-ski, Sacto, defeated John Freeman 6-2, 6-2; Dick Skeehan took two sets 6-4, 6-4 from Dick Stark, OCC, and Rick Donelson beat Josh Jensen 7-6, 6-2, 6-2.

Doug Federighi, OCC, won his match with Ron Gant, 6-0, 6-0.

THE ELIMINATION tournament among the OCC boys drew an interested crowd and produced some fine tennis.

Dick Stark, a much improved player, swept the tournament with a good display of forehands and serves to emerge the winner.

Miller Freeman, who scored a mild upset over Josh Jensen in the quarter finals, was runner-up.

THE CONSOLATION winner was Doug Federighi, and runner-up was Sandy Corbett.

The semi-finals consolation match between Sandy Corbett and Bob Hampton was one of the best of the day, and Corbett's win matched him against Federighi.

Upset of the day was Jack Gilbert's win over Neal Freeman in the quarter-finals.

Trophies were awarded the four winners.

Hoffmans Drops Diablo Drug 4-1

Hoffman Liquors of Martinez out hit Diablo Drug 6-3 and outscored them 4-1 to cop a league win last Wednesday night under the lights at Walnut Creek City Park.

The Diablo Nine took an early lead when Phil Churchill led off with a walk in the opening frame reached second on a sacrifice bunt by Pavia. Perniera stole third and rambled home on an error by John Pagnini. Hoffman's sewed the game up in the fourth when a pair of errors combined with three hits produced three runs.

Ed Hamel, Vic Lopes and Joe Guerra each accounted for singles in the big inning.

Hamel hit a homer in the fifth off Hamman.

Lopes went the distance on the mill for the winners with Jim Mulday behind the plate.

When the track count was started in this area, the total was 10,826 northbound deer; the highest total was in 1954 when the figure was 17,615, and the lowest was in 1948 with a count of 9665.

During the 1948-56 period, Dasmann explained, California has held three special antlerless deer hunts in the Devil's Garden area, in addition to last year's general three-day either-sex hunt. Neighboring Oregon, whose sportsmen share the same herd, held special antlerless hunts twice since 1952 has had general hunter's choice seasons.
